(in program : sport, concerts of amateurs, theatre of humor amateurs);	Short video or photo presentation of the most interesting and non-standard IPA events of the year. Those videos shouldn't be longer than five minutes and not more than three in total and could be demonstrated during IPA world conferences and congresses.	Non formal questionnaire about IPA's cultural life. Its answers' review would be very useful to National sections' leaders	The recent activity of new PEB inspires and gives hope for more active and closer IPA sections' friendship and interaction. I suggest paying more attention to IPA's cultural life and creating more possibilities for sections' leaders to share their experience. Netherlands	Yes	Section The Netherlands is a great supporter of the Arthur Troop Pipes and drums band. They have supported our sections at a number of occasions during 2012. Where ever they perform the IPA emblem and or flag are on display. They have their own banner in which the IPA crest and our association is highlighted on. Section The Netherlands have an IPARC club that are active all year round. The have yearly gatherings and are in touch with IPA amateur radio clubs outside The Netherlands. Ipa member Anja Hoog Antink, is a member of the Dutch Police Band. She travels abroad with the band. (She will assist May-Britt Rinaldo at the Symposium in Stockholm, June 2013) Various districts organise cultural events f.e. Indonesian information evenings that include a meal to which each member of IPA is welcome to. A crossbow shooting event was organised. This may be considered a sporting activity but the focus was on the culture and expertise on cross bow shooting going back to the middle ages. UK	Yes	Our members continue to be involved in hosting members from other countries and visiting other countries too. This was arranged by individual members, Branches, Regions and the Section. We participated in the International Youth Gathering and continue to promote future IYG's. We will be participating in the Young Officers' Seminar in Australia. We were represented at the International Cultural Liaison Officer's Seminar held in Cyprus. A photographic competition was organised for 2012 and a calendar for 2014 is being produced from the entries submitted. Our Section promotes the Arthur Troop Scholarship. We have a very active Caravan and Camping Group that organise rallies throughout the country and beyond. The Group is made up of about 100 serving and retired IPA members from all over the UK who enjoy caravanning/camping/motor-homing in a relaxed and friendly environment. Our Section obtained the Gold Standard Website award. The website publicises all notified national and international events. Last year it was our country's Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebration and a variety of activities were held. This included members getting involved in the pre-Olympic Torch run, preceding the London Olympics, that covered most of the country. We also have an active Motorcycle Group whose membership of almost 100 is spread across the country (also has members in Belgium and Germany).Section UK Motorcycle Group is twinned with Section Netherlands Motorcycle Group. During 2012 the Group visited Morocco.	All of our events are notified to our members on our website www.ipa-uk.org Our Section also has a publication known as 'Police World', distributed to all of our members, that promotes future events and provides retrospective reports on past events. In addition we send a monthly email to our members with updated information on events. The World Police and Fire Games are being held in Belfast 1-10 August 2013. Section UK will be flying the flag on behalf of the International Police Association as a Bronze Partner to the Games. It is anticipated that there will be cultural exchanges throughout the event. 15 caravan and camping rallies are being held during 2013. We are promoting IYG and are awaiting for applicants.	There are festivals held in the UK that attract audiences from around the world. Some present prizes at the end of the festival for a variety of categories. There is the possible opportunity of IPA sponsoring such prizes. Many towns and cities have annual cultural events, some with their twinned towns and cities. There is the opportunity for IPA members to participate in these events, perhaps either in police uniform of national costume, inviting members from	Our Section has investigated the possibility of hosting an International Music Festival covering various genres of music. Provisional enquiries amongst our members, indicates that there is sufficient support, a skills base and expertise to organize such a Festival. We would welcome feedback from the International Cultural Commission, in particular if funding could be made available to launch such a venture.	One possible topic would be: 'Working with Tourist Boards'. On behalf of Section UK, I recently participated in a tourist board workshop in Milan, Italy and met with a variety of companies, including hotel groups who offered preferential rates to IPA members. Perhaps more work should also be done with local Tourist Information Centres. It would be interesting	I am not sure that the work of ICC is fully disseminated to all members, although we do try to do so. I think it would be good to highlight the Commission's work in national publications, including websites.	Ronald Dukes, Vice President International Police Association, British Section Administrative Centre, Arthur Troop House, 1 Fox Road, West Bridgford, Nottingham NG2 6AJ VPDukes@ipa-uk.org +44 (0)1505 862217

				throughout the world to participate.		to hear if anyone has done so or intend to do so and what the perceived benefits are. Another suggestion for a topic would be 'Preparing a Press Release' This may assist in promoting IPA activities in the press and media.
